SUN BEAMS

By WALTER M. BARRETT

In the unexpected and shocking death of Bob Tonini, Truckee lost one of its of its most valued and respected citizens and our sincere sympathy is added to that of a grieved town In civic and community affairs Bob was always to be counted upon and has never shirked his duties as a leader in local life nor placed self above the wishes and welfare of his neighbors and friends. Hundreds knew of his unselfish and generous attributes both in business and private life and he well deserved the high regard in which he was held by all who knew him. The loss will be keenly felt and difficult indeed to replace.

Truckee fishermen this week and next will be recounting tall tales of the big ones that got away or that were caught through some interesting if slightly mythical manner. And then on Monday, May 1 and precisely at 4:30 A. M. (we have checked the almanac for this time) they will be baiting up for a renewal of the most famous sport recessed last fall and all trout—both large and small are served warning—the season will be open. Truckee is fortunate in having perhaps the best trout fishing area in the state, a fact which is not alone appreciated by local nimrods, but by sportsmen by the thousands from other sections. Soon we will be host to many of these visitors who have come to know of the excellent fishing conditions here. If certain rules and laws are observed Truckee may continue to offer this sports man's paradise, but it is up to each and every one of us to see that these rules and laws are adhered to and thus protect our greatest asset.

Up at Meek's Bay this week the H. and W. Philanthropic Club was host at one of the season's most enjoyable parties and the busy members not only showed their guests a good time but added materially to the building fund which they have swelled to a point where it is expected the new clubhouse can be started by early fall. Accumulation of that fund did not come easy and members are to be congratulated upon the fine cooperation and hard work which has made the hall more than a dream.

TRI-COUNTY HEALTH UNIT DISCUSSED IN AUBURN MEET

AUBURN, April 20.— The possibility of establishing a tri-county health unit to consist of Placer, Nevada and El Dorado counties will be discussed by Dr. George M. Uhl of the California state health department today at the Auburn grammar school.

Such a program would provide a full-time trained health officer, a sanitary engineer and public health nurse for the district at little or no extra cost to the counties.

Fishing Season To Open In This District May 1st

Conditions Reported Ideal As Time Nearing For Opening

STREAMS ARE CLEAR

Nevada Opened Season April 15 To Hundreds Of Nimrods

Trout fishing season opens on the Truckee river, its tributaries and at Tahoe and Donner Lakes on May 1 and rom all available information excellent fishing may be enjoyed from the opening day, as water conditions are reported ideal for the sport.

Experts, familiar with the river and district, who have made a study of conditions for years, say that there are more trout in the streams this season than for many years past.

From Tahoe also comes favorable reports of thousands of large trout seen in the lake. While there are many huge trout around the dam at the Truckee river, anglers must be satisfied with admiring them as the law prohibits fishing within 300 feet of a dam.

In past years considerable fishing was reported done in this region with fresh spawn and wardens are going to be especially watchful of illegal bait during the coming season, according to Warden William LaMarr who reported receipt of a letter from Captain J. H. Sanders asking him to guard against the use of illegal lures.

With clear streams and a minimum amount of water, it is expected that some fly fishing will be enjoyed by those who prefer this type of fishing to using bait.

It is expected that the opening of the season will see hundreds of nimrods lining the river and lakes.

The trout fishing season opened in Nevada on April 15 and hundreds of fishermen were seen from the state line to Reno and many were enjoying excellent results with bait predominating in popularity as a lure.

LAKE TAHOE MAY REACH HIGHEST POINT THIS YEAR

Compilation of data collected on recent snow surveys in the high Sierra is now under way, with a preliminary report indicating that Lake Tahoe will probably reach a maximum elevation of 6227.3 feet above sea level this season.

It was indicated that the run_off in teh Truckee river during the period from April to July will be between 90,000 and 110,000 acre feet. Storage in Lake Tahoe and Boca reservoir is expected to fill demands of agriculturists.

The final social event for the season and the largest evenr given by the H and W Philanthropic Club was the barn dance held at Meek's Bay Tuesday evening and attended by 112 persons, all of whom enjoyed a fine time. Everyone came dressed for the occasion and fun was the watchword from start to finish.

The hall and adjoining dining room opened for the occasion were packed while old fashioned dances were in order, the fire-fly waltz proving the most popular. The room was nicely decorated and appointments showed the work of the committee Mr. and Mrs. Charles Heller and Mr. and Mrs. Phil Geier, who were assisted by other members in making the affair a success.

Money realized from the dance will go toward erection of the proposed club house to be built this coming fall.

Arrangements Being Made To Enroll Six More In High School

Norden Children May Enter Local Classes Under Agreement

Possibility that the attendance at the Meadow Lake Union High school will be increased by at least six pupils looms following a conference between officials of Placer and Nevada counties and the two local school boards at Kingvale yesterday afternoon.

For some time the problem of high school education for the children of the Summit and Norden areas has been under consideration, there being no high school in that region for the older boys and girls. Five of the potential local students are in Nevada county and the other lives in Placer county. This offered a complication until the meeting when Superintendents of Schools Elwynn Grogory of Placer and Walter Carlson of Nevada decided to study the problem and work out a solution.

Details of finance and transportation will be determined later but it was generally decided that all these details could be ironed out prior to fixing the budgets in July.

The meeting was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Johnson and was also attended by Mrs. Lotta Bryant, Mrs. Frank Titus and H. I Snider of the high school board and Mrs. Dan Smith and Mrs. George Kamp of the grammar school board.

Last Rites Will Be Held At Masonic Hall On Friday

LEAVES WIDOW, SON

Community Shocked By the Death of Prominent Resident

The entire community was deeply shocked to learn of the sudden death at 2 o'clock this morning of Robert A. Tonini, 58, for the past 35 years a resident of Truckee, and prominent local businessman, who expired at his home following a heart attack. Although in failing health for the past six years, he had apparently been on the road to recovery when he was stricken and removed to his home shortly before nine o'clock last night. All efforts to revive him failed and with his family at the bedside, he expired about 2 a. m.

Masonic funeral services will be held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Masonic hall, following which the body will be sent to San Luis Obispo for interment. The W. H. Laity Funeral Home will be in charge of the arrangements.

Tonini was a native of Cayucos, San Luis Obispo, born July 28, 1881. He left there in 1902 and for two years attended the Y. M. C. A. college in San Francisco studying electrical engineering. In 1904 he went to Boca wheer he was employed as electrician for the Union Ice company until 1920.

At that time he purchased the former Hugh Smith grocery and has engaged in that business since.

Always active in civic and fraternal affairs, Tonini was a past master of Truckee Lodge No. 200. F. and A. M. and was past high priest of the Royal Arch Masons and at the time of his death he was secretary of the latter organization. He was also affiliated with the Odd Fellows and Truckee Lions Club.

For the past ten years he had been auditor of the Truckee Public Utility District.

Tonini was widely known among sportsmen of both California and Nevada. In 1931 he was state blue rock trapshooting champion and last year tied for championship, losing the toss. His favorite recreation was duck hunting and he was considered one of the best.

BILLIONS IN BULLION

Uncle Sam is again being called Uncle Shylock in certain foriegn quarters. This time it's because of our big gold supply. We now have more than $15 billion salted away in underground vaults, a tidy sum representing 57 per cent of all the world's usable gold supply.

What do we care if other nations call us Uncle Shylock? We don't care much, but maybe we should. If we could be sure everybody else would continue indefinitely to honor gold as an indespensable type of currency, we would be safe. But gold is indispensable only as long as we and everybody else think it is. There's nothing to prevent other nations who have little of it from deciding they won't play by our rules and gold bricks any longer or that they won't even entirely dispense with actual currency. That they will buy and sell with one another on a purely barter basis. This might make our gold bullion look more like "gold bricks" as it gathers dust in the hills of ole' Kentucky.

Already this process has been invoked and from abroad it is urged that all "young vigorous, healthy nations" forget this nonsense about gold being important and embark on a new basis of barter or credit conducted with marks. This has awakened a timely response in this country.

Congress will probably soon hear proposals to use this gold to buy imports , thus enabling other coutnries to make similar purchases, restoring more freedom in world trade, and letting some of our idle gold rest in somebody else's dup board for a while. The idea behind this is to put gold to work and tie it to trade.

At any rate, Uncle Sam doesn't mind being called Uncle ShylockB. He was called that before when he tried collecting war debts, but he will mind waking up some morning to find his gold bullion has become a "gold brick."

FARMERS DON'T WANT CANDY

For the first time in the memory of the oldest Congressman, the House of Representatives rejected a proposal to vote a farm subsidy that had been reccommended by a major committee. By a record vote of 204 to 191, the Republican and Conservative Democratic economy bloc stopped a proposal for $250,000,000 for parity payments to farmers.

The rejection of the parity payment scheme came after Representatives from farm and city districts had failed to put across a disgraceful log-rolling deal which would have insured the passage of both this farm subsidy and of President Roosevelt's demand for an additional $150,000,000 for relief

Republicans were the driving force in bringing about this economy move, some 135 of them voting with 68 Democrats to defeat the subsidy. In fact, the G. O. P. delegations from such farm states of Wisconsin, Ohio and Indiana, were solidly against it. As Republican Representative Lamberton of Kansas declared: "Agriculture will never come into its own on parity payments. The hope of agriculture is not in giving farmers a little candy."

The defeat of this parity payment scheme makes it clear that with the slightest encouragement from the White House, real economies could be made by this session of Congress.

POLITICALLY SPEAKING

by JOHN W. DUNLAP
United Press Staff Correspondent

SACRAMENTO, April 20 —(UP)— The Legislative fight ove r Governor Olson's budget developed some interesting angles, not the least of which was the Governor's unexpected blast against the California State Chamber of Commerce for "subersive and unethical" opposition to the budget.

The chamber has never kept it secrtet that it oposed many of Olson's policies. It operated like many other groups in urging members to contact legislators on impending bills. In fact, the chamber's appeals for letters and telegrams to the Legislature is almost exactly the same procedure asked by the oGvernor in his radio talks from the general public.

Therefore his message to the legislature, attaching a "strictly confidential" inter-office letter of the Chamber of Commerce, was something of a bombshell. The letter was read in both houses, was merely filed away by the Assembly but backfired slightly in the Senate when Jack Metzger, R., Red Bluff, introduced a resolution to investigate Olson's letter instead of the Chamber of Commerce as asked by the Governor.

Olson wrote that "At last we have uncovered the mainspring of the opposition to many of our measures, particularly the state budget and the revenue bills." He called particular attention to the portion of the letter on the chamber's program. We quote from the letter:

"Within the n xt 30 days, the battle with regard to the California State Budget for the biennial period 1939-41 will be in full swing. It is, therefore, necessary for you to immediately undertake that part of the program which involves the enrgizing of an articulate and effective public opinion along the lines indicated by the Board of Directors when they approved the following recommendations with regard to the State's fiscal situation:

"1. Reduction in total proposed general fund expenditures for the next biennium to a point where they will be within revenues of existing tax laws.

"2. Continue to carry present cumulative carry-over deficit by resorting to the State's commercial credit(warrant basis).

"3. No new or increased taxes at the presen time.

"4. Opposiion to the granting of any further exemptions from the present tax structure at this time.

"This is the prgram which we must now advance. In advancing he program is that of a specific organization or group There must be created a widespread demand from as many organizations and groups as possible in support of these principles.

" It is imperative that this program shall not carry the label of the State Chamber or any other of the various organizations in the State cooperating wtih us at the present time...."

Answer to Olson was given by A.J McFadden of Santa Ana, President of the chamber, who said "This organization believes that it is clearly withi n its rights in the efforts being put forth to call attention to measures and policies generally believed to be detrimental to the best interests of California."

McFadden added that "With the largest budget presented to the State of California now pending before the legislature calling for the expenditure of $557,000,000, the State Chamber will not be diverted from a sincere effort on behalf of the taxpayers of the state by attacks from any quarter."

Governor Olson undergoes a daily barrage of questions from the capitol news corps in his press conferences, but he got he mos kick ou of a recent appearance of 13-year-old Robert Lavella, of the Sutter Junior High School of Sacramento, who quizzed him like an expert.

A ring of veteran newspapermen surrounded the Governor's desk as Robert was introduced to Mr. Olson. Without the slightest hesitation or misgivings, Robert opened up and asked the governor how he felt when he was elected.

"Mighty tired," replied the Governor.

"And what do you like best about being governor?"

The Governor thought a moment, smiled and said it was the opprotunity to serve his state in the best way possible.

Robert didn't stop there. He wanted to know what the Governor thought abou the Euopean situation, would there be a war and other questions of importance. Finally satisfied, he thnked the Governor, was introduced to others in the room and went his way, probably the proudest boy in the State at the moment..

PIONEER DAY LAKE BOAT DESTINED TO WATERY GRAVE

TAHOE CITY, April 20.— Tahoe school children were disappointed on learning by letter from William Bliss of San Francisco on April 10, that their plans to have the old lake steamer, The Meteor, made into a museum on the commons, was not approved. Bliss and the afmily feel that the only fitting resting place for the proud old boat, with all her historic connections from the early pioneer days, is the lake over which she sailed. And so plans for her last rites proceed, but before he funeral service she will be given a coat of white paint from stem to stern and then towed over to Glenbrook, around whose shores she traveled so faithfully in the service of the owners in the Comstock days. There she will find a last resting place in the deep waters of the lake, another landmark of lakemark, as it were, to the "days of old—the days of gold" and a fitting emblem to the days epitomized by the quotation over the state library building in Sacramento "Give me men to match my mountains."

At the State Capitol

WITH YOUR ASSEMBLYMAN, THURMAN

(by Assemblyman Alien G. Thurman)

Responding to the appeals of thousands of taxpayers and businessmen from all parts of the state your legislators in the assembly last week cut approximately $4,500,000 from the budget, and if the economy bloc in the lower house, consisting of both Democrats and Republicans, continues to amend the budget, further decreases will be made during the present week.

Thirty-four of the 36 members of the minority group and some ten economy minded members of the majority group have voted somewhat consistently for a decrease in the presnt budget, believing that this is no time for increased taxes and increased cost of government.

Your assemblyman has been swamped with letters from all parts of the district opposing ncreased taxes and opposing such proposals as a state health insurance plan,which would create an additional tax pay roll. Many of these letters are from the leaders in the Democratic party throughout the district. Judging from the mail we have received we cannot but feel that we are right in doing all we can to keep the taxes down. Being a small businessman ourself we know some of the problems which we may have to face is certain new laws are enacted. We know that business is being taxed almost to death and that the property owners likewise are finding taxation hard to bear.

There is no need for us to go into detail regarding the items which have thus far been cut down from the budget as the daily newspapers have carried the story somewhat in detail However, the item of nearly $73,000,000 for relief might be given some comment here. This item was taken entirely out of the budget and a special bill and appropriation will undoubtedly be passed in its place This action was taken because the as the writer stated a couple of weeks ago in this column, believes that it should have some control over the manner in which the money is to be spent. The legislature believes that giving a blank check to any administrative head for him to spend as he sees fit, is entirely wrong. Your representatives want those on relief to be the main benefactors from every dollar appropriated for relief and that the cost of administration of this department be kept down. They are not opposed to spending money for relief, but are determined to see that the needy receives this money and not an increased lot of job holders. Several of the members of the legislature also feel that that some kind of a works project is preferable to giving the money out as a dole. They believe that those who can work should work for what they receive. And inasmuch as the present relief administration has thus far no definite program outlined, the legislators are opposed to the blank check proposal The relief situation, we must add is all fairness to the new administration is not one of their making inasmuch as the relief problem has been with us for some time. However, the legislators hold no brief for the past and previous administrations and feel that now is the time to put a check on the manner in which money is going to be spent. Those on relief, however, need have no fear that they are not going to be taken care of All your legislators want to see is that the needy receive somewhere in the neighborhood of 85 per cent of every dollar the taxpayers pay for relief and not 60 or 65 per cent

A legislator in representing a district has a great responsibility. He must not only endeavor to secure what he can for his district but he also must oppose the enactment of laws which would injure the interests of the people in his district and tht is one of the problems of your representative continually. There is certain legislation before the legislature at the presnt time which if approved would seriously nijure our various counties of the mountain area. We are quite fortunate in having an able supporter in our opposition to such measures in Assembly man Clinton Fulcher who represents the seven mountain counties of the Second District. Mr. Fulcher and the writer represent the 17 mountain counties of the state wihch in size is almost one third of the state's area. So together, we continually have to be on the alert when bills affecting the mountain counties come before us.

Telephone Company Cuts Rate On Hand Set Type 'Phones After Hearing

The 10-cent monthly charge for the hand-set type of telephone will be eliminated on bills after July 1, throughout the territory served by Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co., and Southern California Telephone Co., in California, President Ray C. Wakefield of the California Railroad Commission announced.

Removal of this charge will mean savings to telephone users in the state of $250,000 annually, Wakefield said. In addition the companies will invest approximately $450,000 in additional equipment to meet the expected demand for the new hand-set telephones.

N. R. Powley, president of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co., said:

"Discontinuing this charge in our California exchanges will mean a reduction in annual gross revenues of about $250,000. In addition, our capital and other expenditures will be increased substantially because the change will result in the premature retirement of many thousands of telephones of the portable set type and the purchase of thousands of additional telephones of the hand set type. We estimate that the cost of the additional hand sets to be purchased will amount to not less than $450,000.

"Our wage and tax expenses continue t o rise—both are at the highest level in the history of the business. Every effort is being made on the part of the management, to meet these increasing costs and to keep the company in a sound financial condition. The additional charge for hand sets was placed in effect to assist not only in controlling costs and investment, but also in aiding in maintaining the lowest possible overall level of rates. The hand set charge has been reduced from time to time and the monthly charge is now only 10 cents for 12 months of continuous service."

Peace—With What?

PEACE is defined as "a state of quiet or tranquillity; freedom from disturbance or agitation; calm; repose."

Generally speaking, humanity knows not where to find true tranquillity, nor with what to make a compact in order to be free from disturbance. It perplexedly views the spectacle of men and nations that have little or no peace even after making great sacrifices to obtain it. Many gaze uncomprehendingly upon the settled peace of the reformer who has perhaps provoked storms of hate and opposition, but who nevertheless is himself serene, because he is in agreement with Truth and good.

With what then shall we seek to be in agreement? Here is indeed the vital question, for our choice will result either in gaining spiritual peace or in experiencing the lack of it. In seeking a basis for peace, should we not turn to the Bible, the acknowledged storehouse of true wisdom? If we accept its inspired teachings, which reveal God, good, as the basis for all action, agreement, and being, shall we not find our peace in reflecting Him? . . .

Attempts to make peace with human personalities as such, or with shifting material conditions and temporal pressures, bring only confusion. Since Truth, Life, and Love alone are enduring, there can be intelligent expectancy of peace only through conscious agreement with divine Principle. The would-be peace which springs from human temporizing, is as temporary and unsatisfying as is its illusive foundation. Enduring peace is built upon an enduring basis.

The decisions of world politics cannot prevent the individual from experiencing peace through his adherence to Truth. Nothing can stop one from loving and being loved, from being grateful to God for His goodness, and from helping others to be happy by his expression of God's goodness. Mary Baker Eddy says in Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures, (p. 264) "Spiritual living and blessedness are the only evidences, by which we can recognize true existence and feel the unspeakable peace which comes from an all-absorbing spiritual love."

Neither in matter, nor in false material sense, nor in human policy, is peace to be found. That which denies the power and presence of God can never contribute to one's conscious at-one-ment with spiritual good. The material and temporal, which are opposed to spiritual harmony, do not constitute reality. Spiritual sense discerns the allness of God, the nothingness of matter, and the powerlessness of physical sense to interfere with divine facts. When one is at peace with God, whatever seems to oppose one's manifestation of good is neutralized by the fact that good is true, and that its supposititious opposite is untrue.

Christ Jesus expressed more Godlikeness than any other who has ever walked the earth, and he therefore was more conscious of peace than any other. He knew that spiritual peace was one of the greatest blessings he could leave to men, for he said, before parting from his beloved disciples (John 14:27): "Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid." He spoke more than once of peace as being the result of following in his footsteps. Hate and misunderstanding might beset the path of his faithful followers, but their peace, founded upon the rock, Christ, would remain undisturbed. Such peace is bigger than circumstances, and circumstances do not change it.

All who acknowledge Christ Jesus as Master and Way-shower can find their peace where he found his, namely, in the daily demonstration of Truth and Love. As Paul declared (I Corinthians 3:11), "For other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ."—The Christian Science Monitor,

Man The At The Keyhole

(BY OPERATIVE WB)

There's a rumor about that Bill Plunkert, ousted relie administration executive, who was accused of radical tendencies, is laughing up his sleeve at all his critics. The story has t that Mr. Plunkert has verbal assurance he will be reinstated as soon as th lawmakers have returned to their home precincts. But legislators who have heard the yarn are inclined to scout it. "We can still bark," they contend, "even in our home districts."

Qualification of the "$30 Every Thursday" pension scheme for another bout with the voter has Governor Olson up a tree, hoping no one will find him, according to our keyhole observer. The ham-and-eggers are demanding a special election, "or else"! And they are said to have backed up their ultimatum by putting $60,000 in escrow for a recall movement if the Governor says, "Sorry, I haven't met you."

That gubernatorial demand for investigation of the State Chamber of Commerce has back-fired, our spy advises, and the Senate inquiry is likely to embarrass the State administration no end. Reason: Senator Jack Metzger of Red Bluff, a persistent fellow, broadened his resolution to include investigation of the Workers' Alliance and all other "pressure groups" demanding increased State spending. And the Workers' Alliance is said to be in no condition to stand official inquiry. There are too many registered Communists on the payroll.

Thurman Answers Governor's Charge

SACRAMENTO, April 20 —(RSS)— Despite Governor Culbert L. Olson's attacks upon members of the State Assembly voting for cuts in the budget request for appropriations totaling $557,163,355, the bi-partisan economy group in the Legislature will continue the fight to slash more millions from the all- time high figure.

The Governor's charges of "pressure group influence" were met by counter charges of "an Olson one-man pressure group."

Republicans and Democrats forming the economy-minded opposition to what they term "Olson's Folly" offered a temporary truce to the outgeneraled administration forces when they proposed a conference committee of equal numbers from both political parties be appointed to work out a solution of the budget problem. The offer was rejected.

Referring to the Governor's charge of "pressure group influence" dominating those opposing the budget, Assemblyman Allen G. Thurman of Colfax asked, " Is it a coincidence that the Governor vetoed bills introduced by Assemblymen who refused to be obots executing his demands? Is it by mere chance that administration messengers dart about the Assembly chamber button-holing recalcitrant Democrats? I thin k not. It looks to me like pressure of the most odious character si being exerted by the Governor himself."

"Governor Olson attempts to force his will upon members of the Assembly, who, interested in the plight of California's taxpayers as well as unfortunate citizens seeking State aid seek to reduce State expenditures in order that relief may be given both groups," the Colfax Assemblyman said.

"Olson seems to resent the honest efforts of Legislators working for economy."

Thurman added that dictatorial commands from Olson that the budget be passed without the slightest alteration were resented by his fellow Legislators, who are determined to continue their constitutionally appointed functions of making California's laws, regardless of whatever pressure the Governor may exert.

MEXICAN RELIEF CLIENTS SEND $100,000 A YEAR TO RELATIVES SAYS OFFICIAL

SACRAMENTO, April 20 —(UP)— Charges that many indigent Mexicans are spending part of the cash dole they receive from the State Relief Administration to relatives in Mexico were contained in a letter signed with the name of Los Angeles County Supervisor W. A. Smit and placed on the desks of legislators here.

The letter declared that "an investigation made in this county revealed that $9700 in post office money orders were sent to Mexico by aliens on relief during the course of one month.

"This figures out more than $100,000 per year, and I believe this figure is very conservative," the quotation continued.

"As you know, under the present state laws, the county can do nothing about the alien situation other than give them relief when an investigation shows they are in need. I believe we are handling this wrong."

The letter urged support of bills before the legislature restricting payment of relief funds to aliens. One such measure, by Senator Swing, R. San Bernardino, designed to prohibit giving state aid to aliens who have lived in the state less than five years has been given Senate approval.

"I think that emergency relief not to exceed 30 or 60 days and transportation back to their home country is al l the responsibility we should have. There is no reason why we should spend our money to maintain these people who, in most cases, have no desire nor any intention of ever becoming citizens."

A tabulation attached to the mimeographed sheet stated that aliens on relief in Los Angeles County have increased by 16 per cent during a 17 month period. Of the 3280 receiving indigent and child aid in January, 2035 were Mexicans.

The letter was addressed to Royal C. Stephens, President of the National Club of America for Americans, Inc., who distributed the copies here.

REPUBLICANS MAKE GAINS IN MICHIGAN, NEW YORK AND CHICAGO IN MARCH

The Republican tide that started rising last year is still going up. The entire Republican ticket was voted into office in Michigan's Spring Elections. In Wayne County (Detroit) which went solidly Democratic last November, Republican John C. Cowan was reelected Auditor over the Democratic candidate. The election gave the G.O.P. control of the Board of Education and the Board of Agriculture.

A day later Republican candidate Dwight Green got the largest vote ever cast for a Republican for mayor of Chicago (637,000). Fighting a New Deal Democratic machine, Green held the majority of Mayor Edward J. Kelley, Democrat, to 182,000. In 1936 Franklin Roosevelt carried Chicago by a 555,386 majority. In 1938, Scott Lucas, Democrat carried Chicago over Richard Lyon, Republican by 255,277.

A poll of fifty leading Washington newspaper men which appears in Newsweek of April 10, shows 31 votes for the G.O.P. to win in 1940, unless there is a major war in the meantime. And the New York Secretary of State reports that Republican registration has gained about 200,000 since 1937, while Democratic enrollment has declined about 120,000 since then.
